

Innocence from Abroad

From schools, places of worship, and homes, children expressed their reactions directly and often dramatically. Their artwork, letters, and poems, documented the impact of these events on young lives around the world. Sometimes on a poster collage, or on a roll of butcher paper, children left their marks with paint, crayons, marker and more. These innocent gestures represent their growing awareness of becoming part of the world community.

1. Paper Cut Outs - Germany
2. Condolence Boards - Japan
3. Drawing - Netherlands
4. String of Stars - Canada
5. Crane - Canada
6. Letter - Canada
7. Drawing - Canada
8. Drawing - Netherlands

9. Drawing - Netherlands
10. Paper Cut Outs - Canada
11. Drawing - Germany
12. Cloth - South Africa
13. Letter - Germany
14. Postcards - Canada
15. Book Original - South Africa
16. Letter - Australia
17. Poster - Canada
18. Drawings - Germany
19. Notes - Gambia
20. Drawing - Canada
21. Drawing - France
22. Drawing - France